Pup play spaces: one size does not fit all

In a perfect world, all dogs would play well together. But the reality is that dogs have different needs and temperaments. Much in the same way that toddlers play differently than adults, we recognize that our “guests” must be grouped according to a variety of factors, including size, age, breed and sociability.

That’s why the Dancing Dog facility features separate play spaces — one for large and/or more energetic breeds and one for small and/or more timid breeds. In our care, your dog will get the exercise it needs in the company of others that play nice.

Whether chow or chihuahua, puppy or past-prime, Dancing Dog makes sure your pooch plays with dogs of similar temperament.

Routines to fit your dog’s individual schedule

Like humans, dogs are creatures of habit. Break a dog’s routine and you’re likely to have one cantankerous canine on your hands.

Dancing Dog is consistently ranked as the city’s No. 1 dog care center because when your dog stays with us, it’s like they’re at home away from home. We take your dog’s schedule seriously, ensuring that naptime, playtime, feeding and bathroom breaks happen when they’re supposed to. Our staff of dog-loving experts cut no corners to ensure your four-legged companion stays healthy and happy, whether they’re in our care for a single day, overnight or long-term.

Play space is essential for your dog’s socialization, but never underestimate the need for quiet time as well.

Some dogs need more leash time

Regular exercise is an important part of your dog’s health and longevity. Depending on its breed and age, “regular exercise” can mean anything from daily walks around the block to jogging on a leash for miles on end.

If you have a dog that needs a little extra exercise, we offer off-site walks of any duration, from 10-minute neighborhood strolls to hour-long treks. Our part of town boasts the city’s highest concentration of dog-friendly parks and footpaths, which means we’re in close vicinity to the best places for your dog’s outdoor recreational activities.

Molly gives a Dancing Dog Tour

Molly, our playful hostess, is eager to give you the most enthusiastic tour of the Dancing Dog facility. Follow her wagging tail as she takes you from the quiet Nap Room to our friendly receptionist, who's usually good for a treat or two. Then, it's off to visit the Hound Hotel before making a beeline for Molly's favorite spot, the All-Sizes Play Yard. What, no time to say 'hi' to your friends in the indoor/outdoor Small Dog play space, Molly? How rude!
